

Health Aid

Roxy Farkas

Context & Impetus

Preventative health is a prevalent problem in the US and is of particular concern to young adults as they transition to independence from their parents.

Poor health during young adulthood has long-lasting negative effects.

This project has the potential to lower costs and improve outcomes and lives particularly for younger patients between the ages of 18 and 24.

