

I would like to research how patients interact with their healthcare regimens.

After gaining a better understanding of how these regimens fit into their lives, I would conceptualize different programs to improve adherence.

Concept
